

Becoming a Tutor

Tutors with UK qualified teacher status who also hold an enhanced DBS can become tutors with TeacherTutor.org. Tutors use our service for free, will be self employed and will be able to reach a wide audience whilst retaining control of their own pricing. TeacherTutor.org take no commission from tutors fees. Qualified Teachers without a DBS can also join our team and through our partnership with The Tutors Association, we can process enhanced DBS applications. No previous tutoring experience is necessary and teachers do not have to be in employment in a school.

Creating a profile on TeacherTutor.org

Simply go to 'create a tutor profile' and complete the simple online form. You will need to provide the following information:

- ◆ Your QTS certificate with your QTS number
- ◆ 2 referees that can be anyone who has known you for a minimum of ?? years, one of which should be someone you know in a professional capacity
- ◆ Your enhanced DBS certificate
- ◆ Complete an ID verification check through our partner TrustID.co.uk

Your profile will include

- ◆ The subjects you are offering tutoring in
- ◆ The level of qualifications and exam boards you can tutor
- ◆ Your experience in teaching or tutoring
- ◆ Your hourly tutoring fees (this may vary depending on level and you can set a range)
- ◆ A professional photograph
- ◆ A bio that details how you intend to deliver your tutoring including your pedagogical approach, teaching styles and resources
- ◆ The platforms you will use, such as Zoom or Microsoft Teams
- ◆ Reviews and star ratings from previous tutoring you have undertaken with clients/parents using our service

Your profile is your chance to sell yourself and make a connection with new clients, see our guidance document on how to create an effective profile.

Created a profile, what next?

Clients/ parents will use our search engine and matching service to find their perfect tutor. If they like your profile they can reach out through our chat facility, build a relationship and agree to a programme of study. Where both tutors and a client agree, clients make a one off payment to receive a tutors contact details.

Reviews

Parents/clients using our service are asked to leave tutor reviews. It is important to make a tuition agreement, provide quality tutoring in line with this agreement and be honest and reliable.
